

WEEKLY HARVEST REPORT

Week ending 24 December 2017

Viterra total	18 Dec – 24 Dec 2017*	Total 2017/18 harvest
	432,814 tonnes	5,244,519 tonnes

With much of the state finished harvest, Viterra had just under 433,000 tonnes of grain delivered to sites last week.

This brings total receipts for 2017/18 to 5.2 million tonnes.

As the New Year holiday approaches, growers are encouraged to check the Viterra website towards the end of the week for site opening hours.

Western region receipts	18 Dec – 24 Dec 2017*	Total 2017/18 harvest
	81,511 tonnes	1,446,258 tonnes

Harvest in the Western region is now largely complete with 81,000 tonnes delivered last week.

A barley vessel was loaded from the Port Lincoln terminal.

Central region receipts	18 Dec – 24 Dec 2017*	Total 2017/18 harvest
	184,080 tonnes	2,566,939 tonnes

Sites in the Central region took in 184,000 tonnes last week.

Sites in the north are winding down with the remaining grain left to be harvested around the lower areas near Port Giles, Roseworthy and Saddleworth.

Eastern region receipts	18 Dec – 24 Dec 2017*	Total 2017/18 harvest
	167,223 tonnes	1,231,322 tonnes

More than 167,000 tonnes of grain was delivered to Eastern region sites over the past week, taking total receipts to 1.2 million tonnes.

More growers are starting to finish, however last week's cooler weather halted some.

Shipping remains steady out of the two Adelaide ports and rail and road movements have been busy moving stock from upcountry to port.

Viterra's container packing operations at Adelaide and Two Wells have a strong schedule well into the New Year.
